UPCOMING EVENTS

- Shopping Tour – November TBC

Dear Parents and Friends

It is hard to believe that we are already at Term 4. The year has flown. Term 4 is always a special term at Stocky. It is the term where we celebrate our Year 6 students and thank them and their families for the contributions they have made to our school community over the time they have spent with us. We also welcome new families to our school community as we support of the transition of our preps from preschool to school. We hold some very special events as a school community such as our school concert and Year 6 graduation. Term 4 is busy term too as teachers are writing reports, planning 2019 classes and preparing students to transition to a new teacher and classroom. Please find below some dates you may wish to put in your calendar now before the craziness of the end of the year is upon us:

November 5 – No school

November 6 – Public Holiday

December 3 - Year 6 Graduation

December 12 - School Concert

December 21 – Last Day of school for 2018

HATS

Please be reminded that as a Sun Smart School students are required to wear a royal blue broad brimmed hat in Term 4. In accordance with our school policy children who do not have a hat will be required to stay in a designated shaded area of the school. Children without a hat will also be unable to participate in PE sessions.
